Regular volunteers are the lifeblood of our nonprofit operation. As an educational facility we offer a place for all volunteers to learn and gain hands-on experience in the proper care and handling of horses and other animals. Without volunteers our organization would come to a grinding halt. Lead volunteers are integral to our success.

We're looking for someone who can lead, motivate, train and manage a team of volunteers. Some horse experience preferred, but we will train a person that demonstrates commitment and dedication to helping animals.
